

Everything You Ever Wanted to Know About the Fete But Were Afraid to Ask

Fete	April 22, 7pm – 11pm at Sunningdale Country Club
Kids	Nope, not tonight; book a babysitter. Bring your significant other. Or don't.
Dress Code	Cocktail attire (fancy but not black tie)
Who should come	The Fete is a community event, so everyone who lives in Edgemont and is an educator to our children is invited.
Platinum, Gold and Silver Tickets	We offer Platinum, Gold and Silver tickets to community members. The different prices allow you to determine the donation to the PTA and PTSA that is right for your family.
Faculty Recognition Tickets	The Edgemont community has historically welcomed its faculty members to the Spring Fete as honored guests. By purchasing one of these tickets, in addition to your personal ticket, you are supporting this time-honored tradition. Tickets are not designated to a specific teacher or administrator but appreciated by all who attend.
Prizes	Prizes are donated by faculty members, community members, and local businesses. Donate one today! (They're tax deductible, like your tickets).
Bidding	Bid if you want to (on a computer, tablet, or smart phone). Don't bid if you don't want to. Bid online even if you can't come to the party, beginning on April 15 at 7am. Bid online and/or the live auction at the Fete. Online bidding closes on April 22 at 9:30pm.
Live Auction	A highlight of the evening – form a group or bid individually for amazing dinners offered by Edgemont's top chefs/parents.
Dinner	Before dinner there are passed hors d'oeuvres. Dinner is buffet style. There is no assigned seating, but there are plenty of tables and casual seating arrangements. Dinner is included in all tickets.
Drinks	Open bar is included in all tickets.
DJ and Dancing	All night!
EJournal	The EJournal will be available online after the Fete, featuring the names of all donors, sponsors, and names of Platinum and Gold ticket holders. We will also feature pictures from the Fete itself, so get picture-ready!
Volunteer	Like all PTA and PTSA endeavors, the Fete is run entirely by volunteers. Join in! Email us at edgemontspringfete@gmail.com
Proceeds	All proceeds from the Spring Fete are divided equally between the PTA and PTSA and directly benefit the children of Edgemont.
Location, location, location!	Sunningdale Country Club
